- DoD spends over $11 billion annually in New York and has a major economic impact in several communities

DoD Mission

The mission of the Department of Defense is to provide the military forces needed to deter war and protect the security of our country. The national security depends on our defense installations and facilities being in the right place with the right qualities and capacities to protect our nation.

Sustainability And The DoD Mission

DoD's sustainability vision is to maintain the ability to operate into the future without decline. Our sustainability plan focuses on such key issues as increasing use of renewable energy, constructing high performance sustainable buildings, increasing water efficiency and reuse, holistically managing waste, and maintaining readiness in the face of climate change.

DoD And State Partnerships

DoD and military service representatives work proactively with state legislators and officials to build partnerships and awareness of actions that could benefit or impact the military mission.

Fort Drum

Located in New York's picturesque North Country, Fort Drum is the home of the U.S. Army's 10th Mountain Division (Light Infantry). Its population includes active duty military personnel and their family members. Major units within the 10th Mountain Division are the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th Brigade Combat Teams, the Combat Aviation Brigade, and the 10th Sustainment Brigade. Fort Drum encompasses 107,265 acres (168 square miles) and is the largest employer in Northern New York.

Watervliet Arsenal (WVA)

WVA is home to a one-stop manufacturing process that is unparalleled in the defense industry. The arsenal is the nation's premier cannon manufacturer and producer of Army weaponry. WVA takes great pride in being one of the few remaining government-owned and operated manufacturing centers in the Department of Defense. In addition to the hundreds of Department of Army civilians whose jobs are directly tied to the manufacture of mortar tubes, tank cannons, and artillery barrels, hundreds of other personnel work in the Army's Benét Laboratories, collocated at the arsenal.

U.S. Military Academy, West Point Garrison

Located 50 miles from New York City in the scenic Hudson River Valley of Orange County, the U.S. Military Academy at West Point is a four-year academic institution and nationally renowned historic site. West Point is the oldest continually occupied military post in America. As the world's premier leader-development institution, West Point accomplishes its mission by developing the student body, or Corps of Cadets, intellectually, physically, militarily, ethically, spiritually, and socially. West Point is also home to active duty Soldiers, their family members, and a civilian workforce supporting the mission of the academy.

Fort Hamilton

Located in Brooklyn, New York, Fort Hamilton houses a Military Entrance Processing Station, Reserve Units, Ainsworth Clinic, and the New York City Recruiting Battalion. Fort Hamilton is home to the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers North Atlantic Division, one of eight regional business centers that deliver projects and services to the Armed Forces. Established in 1825 and named in honor of Alexander Hamilton, the first Secretary of Treasury, the post has several notable commanders including Captain Robert E. Lee, First Lieutenant Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson, and Captain Abner Doubleday. The main mission of Fort Hamilton is to provide metropolitan New York with military installation support for the United States Army Reserves and Army National Guard.

National Guard and Other Reserve Components

The Guard and Reserve organize, train, and equip citizen soldiers/airmen to ensure their rapid mobilization for duties within the state, nation, and around the world. While all Reserve Components have a federal mission to augment active duty forces in times of crises, the Guard has the additional, unique mission of serving the Governor during state emergencies. Guard and Reserve units are stationed throughout the state.
